The school exists because of the student. The first obligation of the substitute is to the student.

Concerns, comments, and/or questions should be directed to the building principal.

Do not bring books to read, PDA's, computers, handheld games, or other material/devices for personal use when you should be supervising students. Come prepared to teach and work with the students.

CLASSROOM MANAGEMENT

Substitute teachers are expected to use common sense and good judgment in addressing problems with students and other staff members. If however, a problem cannot be properly resolved at an individual level after an attempt at resolution has been made, the matter should be referred to the school principal. The substitute teacher is expected to maintain a level of discipline in the classroom which is conducive to a positive learning environment. A well-organized and skillfully conducted class will have fewer discipline problems. Your presence, stature and tone of voice affect the reaction of a class to you. A positive attitude will help gain the respect of student.

Key Points:

- Start the day in the manner in which you wish to continue. Greet students at the door.
- Know the lessons you will present, at what time you present and the method you will use.
- Stand when presenting a lesson and walk around at all times.
- Speak loudly enough to be heard, but softly enough to obtain attention.
- Observe carefully pre-scheduled routines (homeroom, breaks, and lunches, etc.)
- Be calm and unemotional, be firm and fair
- Do not threaten – provide obtainable goals with enforceable consequences.
- Do not embarrass the student as a form of punishment. Try to handle the situation privately.
- Do not in any case use physical discipline of any type
- Report serious problems to principal's office immediately
- Do not punish the group for the actions of one
- Set limits for behavior
- Ignore behaviors that might increase if given attention
- Develop a signal to let students know behavior is unacceptable
- Reinforce students for appropriate behavior
- Redirect students back to task by offering to help, discussing the assignment or complimenting the student's accomplishment on the completed part of the task
- Always treat students with respect
- Model respectful behavior
- For your physical and legal safety, physical contact with students must be avoided unless it is considered part of the job description. Substitutes who are accused of inappropriate touching or behavior with students will be reported immediately by the school administration to the appropriate officials. These substitutes will be removed from the Substitute List pending the outcome of the investigation. You will not be contacted during the investigation.

MONITORING STUDENTS

The substitute should never leave students unattended at any time. In the absence of the teacher, a substitute assumes full responsibility for students in the class, outside the class, on the playground, in the cafeteria, etc. unless another adult is assigned that responsibility by the campus principal. Students should not be released before the bell unless the substitute is instructed to do so by a teacher or campus administrator.

CLASSROOM ETHICS

Information obtained about students, including grades/ performance must be kept confidential. It is against the law to disclose information contained in a student's personal folder, a student's grades, or the fact that a student has a special need or disability.

AT THE END OF THE DAY

Make notes for the regular classroom teacher about your day. Include information about problems during the day and any other information that you feel the teacher might want to know. If you were not able to follow lesson plans, if an assignment could not be completed, or if you had to rearrange schedules, leave a note explaining why.

When substituting duties are complete for the day, the substitute should:

1. Straighten the classroom and leave appropriate notes for the regular teacher
2. Secure all doors and windows in the classroom
3. Report to the campus contact person
4. Sign out at the front desk of the school (This is extremely important as this record determines the dates for which a substitute is paid)
5. Leave keys, badge, and any other school materials with the campus contact person

SUBSTITUTE BEHAVIOR

If a significant complaint in regard to a substitute teacher's performance or behavior is received, the substitute will be contacted by the Human Resources Department either by phone or by mail. If the behavior reported amounts to a serious breach of duties, the substitute will be removed or suspended from the Active Substitute List. If the complaint/concern is less serious, the substitute will be asked to report for a conference. At this conference, the nature of the complaint will be discussed and appropriate actions to address the problem will be decided upon. If the continued complaints are received, the substitute teacher will be removed from the Active Substitute List.

SUBSTITUTE ACCIDENT REPORTING

A substitute who has had an accident in the course and scope of employment, regardless of its seriousness, must report it immediately to his/her supervisor. Supervisors must notify the District office.

All district policies and procedures must be followed.

- Lesson Plans

Finding and Accepting Jobs over the Telephone

Before any features are available, you must register with the system and create a PIN. The Access ID and PIN are used for all interactions with the system.

Call-in

From the main menu, select one of the following options.

1. Review or Cancel Assignments

Job information is played. Current and future jobs are played in job number order. After each job is played, you may be allowed to cancel the job. If this option is not played, contact the system operator. To cancel a job, enter a reason from the list of decline/cancellation reasons. Canceling an assignment on the day of the job may result in being disqualified from being offered other jobs for today.

2. Hear Available Jobs

If feature is enabled, listen to available jobs. During morning callout, only jobs for today are played.

3. Review or Modify Callback number

The number currently in your profile is played. Enter all digits that will be required to call you from the location of the system. Include the long distance code and/or area code.

4. Review or modify Temporary Do not Call Time

If feature is enabled, enter a time that the system can resume calling you.

5. Review or Modify Unavailability dates

Your current and future unavailability dates are played in start date order. You are not offered jobs that occur during this period. The unavailability period does not restrict you from calling the system and hearing jobs for any date.

Call-in (continued)

6. Review or Modify Daily Availability

- Review or delete time periods you are available to work.
- Enter a new time period you are available to work.
- Review or delete a time period you do not want to receive calls.

Job Offers

When the system calls you about an open job, the job information will play, including the absent employee's name, the location, classification, and dates and times of the job. Also, if special instructions were recorded for the job, they will be played. You can accept or decline the assignment. If you decline the assignment you will be asked to enter a reason for the decline and you may be disqualified from other job offers for that day during the morning callout.

Assignment Cancellations

Substitute cancelled assignment notification calls are made once an hour during callout periods. The details of the cancelled job are played. You will automatically be made available for other jobs during the time period that was held by the canceled job.

Call-out

Substitutes are called and offered jobs. The system may also call to inform a substitute of an assignment cancellation.

A substitute can:

- Press the star (*) key for the system to wait up to 2 minutes
When the system calls, if someone else answers the telephone and has to locate you or you have to locate your login information, the system can be told to wait for approximately two minutes. If, at that time no Access ID is entered, the system will disconnect and record that the result of the call was a no answer.
- Access the system
Enter your Access ID and PIN, both followed by the star (*) key.
